THE FRANKFORT COMMONWEALTH.—The publication of this paper was suspended during the occupancy of the city of Frankfort by the rebels, and when they left it they took with them all the paper and printing ink belonging to the establishment, leaving Confederate scrip in payment therefor. The largest proportion of the subscribers receive their papers by mail, and it being impracticable at this time to send the paper by mail, owing to a general suspension of all facilities in the State, it will continue suspended for a short time, when we hope to continue its publication without further interference by the rebels.

John B. GRAY KILLED.—An affray occurred yesterday afternoon, on Lafayette street, between Preston and Floyd, which resulted in the instant death of a man named John B. Gray. It appears that Gray threw a stone at Farmer, and as he was in the act of passing him, he slapped at him (Farmer) carelessly, when Farmer, who had his pistol drawn all the while, immediately shot him twice in the neck, producing instant death. Farmer immediately made his escape.

Among the prisoners brought down Tuesday night we noticed the person of Chauncy (Jenett), a person well known in this city. He left here in Blanton Duncan's regiment, and was at the first battle of Bull Run. He has received his discharge papers from the rebel army, having been through all the battles in Eastern Virginia. He looks natural as life.

INQUIRIES No. 26—Held, October 15, 1862, on Lafayette street, between Preston and Floyd streets, on the body of John B. Gray.

Verdict—"Came to his death by two wounds in and on the right side of the throat, caused by two balls fired from a pistol in the hands of John Farmer."

JAMES C. GILL, Coroner.

Everything was quiet at Shivelyville yesterday.

The train arrived from Lebanon Junction last evening on time. All quiet along that line.

Everything was quiet as usual at Taylortown's safe. How is Cincinnati?

BURGLARY.—Tuesday night some robbers broke into the auction store of R. Powell, on Market street, between Second and Third, and stole sixteen watches, of various descriptions. A wagon hammer was found upon the show-case, which was evidently left by the thieves.

PROCEESSINGS—Wednesday, Oct. 16, 1862, on Lafayette street, between Preston and Floyd streets, on the body of John B. Gray.

MAJOR'S OFFICE, October 9, 1862.

000 d^o

CHIEF QUARTERMASTER'S OFFICE, Louisville, Ky., October 13, 1862.

Wanted all horses and mules that may be required from time to time for the Quartermaster's Department at this station, will be purchased by the undersigned alone, and in the manner following:

1. Whenever animals are required in large numbers, advertisements will be issued and contracts entered into, provided there be no necessity for immediate delivery.

2. Such animals as may be required from time to time will be purchased in open market, from persons only who are loyal to the Government. An oath of allegiance will be required from all parties who present stock for inspection and delivery. Blanks will be furnished by the officer detailed to superintend the inspection of the animals.

3. Capt. Elias Nigh, Assistant Quartermaster, is assigned to the especial duty of receiving and inspecting stock. Capt. Harris, Assistant Quartermaster, will provide two suitable inspectors to act under oath, who shall both be on hand at the Government stables on Eighth street, beyond Broadway, daily, from 9 A. M. to 12 M., and from 2 P. M. to 4 P. M., to inspect in the presence of Captain Nigh, such animals as may be presented. These inspectors will, in the performance of this duty, act under the orders of Capt. Nigh.

4. Capt. Nigh will cause a thorough inspection to be made of all animals presented, and will set such as are acceptable immediately. No animals under three years old will be accepted. No animals will be purchased except as herein provided.

5. When animals are accepted, the two inspectors will give triplicate "inspection certificates" to the owners of the stock. These certificates must be approved by Capt. Nigh, and proper vouchers will be issued by the undersigned on presentation of these certificates at this office. These certificates must be presented within twenty-four hours after they are issued.

Captains Nigh and Harris will cause the provisions of this order to be immediately carried into effect.
